

COMMISSIONER

11 December, 2007.

Dear Cllr Nasir Jamil,

I write in appreciation of your role in advancing Pakistan's case and interests in the UK.

British Pakistanis serve as a living bridge between their country of heritage and country of adoption. In that context, the role of elected councillors becomes particularly important.

I am aware that you have been playing an active role and making a valuable contribution to our community's welfare. Your activities and engagement on issues of high priority to Pakistan deserve our appreciation and gratitude.

Keep up the good work,

Best regards,

Sincerely,

( Dr. Maleeha Lodhi )
